

Scrambled Orchids

Instructions: Read the passage below then work out the scrambled words in the table. Write the answers in the boxes. All the scrambled words are found in the passage.

‘Where did he find this orchid?’ asked Mickey.

‘He wouldn’t tell anybody,’ said Makayla. ‘He didn’t want anybody to know where it was because he knew someone might take it. All he would say was, that it was somewhere near Heatherbridge.’

‘Heatherbridge?’ said Geraldine. ‘So there is a rare orchid in Heatherbridge? How wonderful!’

‘There might be,’ said Makayla. ‘Even if Percival Radbourne was telling the truth, the original flower would have disappeared by now. The only hope is that it seeded and produced more plants and flowers. But my mum and dad hunted high and low in the area several times over the years. They never found it.’

‘So your mission,’ said Emma, ‘is to find the Headlamp Orchid and photograph it with the African comb.’

‘That’s right,’ said Makayla.

Charlie Lupton and the Orchid Princess, Nigel A. Bernard, p. 34

raer
ernev
anre
drihoc
byaydon
linoigar
siomsni
ewlrof
grith
ufrowlend
araicfn
asltnp
httru
vareesl
gielnlt

Scrambled Orchids

Answers

raer	rare
ernev	never
anre	near
drihoc	orchid
byaydon	anybody
linoigar	original
siomsni	mission
ewlrof	flower
grith	right
ufrowlend	wonderful
araicfn	African
asltnp	plants
httru	truth
vareesl	several
gielnlt	telling