

Landing by Verbs

The plane has to land at Lukla, the most dangerous airport in the world. The only safe way is to follow the verbs. Draw a line from the plane which goes through all the verbs down to the airport.

thin office was jackets news sorry dangerous high small lady cargo today ticket good swerved tractor chin spire mountains wrist big monkeys faster street five minutes cabin spices roof pots desk Everest strict Sherpa looked picked sun steep driver airport very one brother see heavy buildings full giant nice sir met feet hotted months rolling heart

